

August 31 6:02 PM

Kim

Hi, this is Kim W. How is the project going?

August 31 6:19 PM

Kim

I just saw your e-mail. Thanks for the update.

August 31 11:26 PM

Brian

We just got done building the final tool needed. I'm back in bed now preparing my back for tomorrow.

I can't email tonight, but if you are awake and want to talk, I'm available.

-Note: Add this to email #28.

September 1 10:17 PM

Kim

How did today go?

September 1 10:18 PM

Brian

Quiet. It rained and no drama otherwise.

September 1 10:31 PM

Kim

I've posted a few of our e-mails. Will you get to keep your home?

September 1 10:32 PM

Brian

So far yes. We'll see what tomorrow brings.

-Append to 29? Or just mention elsewhere?

September 1 10:33 PM

Brian

I'm replying to your email now.

-Append to 30?

September 1 10:34 PM

Kim

Alright, thank you.

September 3 12:06 PM

Kim

I posted all of our e-mails and I read your last one.

September 3 1:37 PM

Brian

I saw that. I did post on /pol/ last night, but otherwise, I got back to writing the new book. Still no action here. Everything is calm. I'm waiting for the petrobond sand to arrive. I was able to purchase it with your donations. You have officially participated in the first Holy Grail build. I hope it arrives soon.

September 19 9:37 PM

Brian

How'd you do?

September 19 10:49 PM

Kim

It went incredibly well. I had an all-out race against/with a woman twice my age and lost at the very end by about ten seconds.

September 19 10:50 PM

Kim

This is probably the best I have run since I got injured in July last year.

September 19 10:50 PM

Brian

Good job.

September 19 11:11 PM

Kim

Thank you. Has your living situation changed?

September 19 11:12 PM

Brian

Not yet. I don't think they have the balls to kick me out. At least not yet.

September 19 11:15 PM

Kim

Was 9/1 actually about paying rent?

September 19 11:15 PM

Brian

Yep.

September 19 11:18 PM

Brian

It wasn't just about that, but it did play a part. If I wouldn't have sold that big green egg when I did, I would have left anyway. Still living on that money now.

September 19 11:21 PM

Kim

Because otherwise you might still be living there but with no money?

September 19 11:22 PM

Brian

I would have used what was left to find a beautiful place in nature as far away from people as possible.

September 11 11:23 PM

Brian

Sounds morbid, but humanity deserves it.

September 19 11:26 PM

Kim

And stay there until you die.

September 19 11:27 PM

Brian

Or get picked up. Nathan is convinced that I'm going home as opposed to dying, but I'm not sold on the idea.

September 19 11:29 PM

Brian

From what I have experienced this far, humanity wants me to die anyways. I'd be giving them what they want...

September 19 11:29 PM

Kim

Is there a particular manner in which you think your life must end (e.g. cause of death)?

September 19 11:30 PM

Brian

That is entirely humanity's decision. The collective decision plays the largest part.

September 19 11:32 PM

Brian

I can feel it every waking second of my life. It's why my superiors are initiating the end times sequence. Call it motivation to force everyone to a decision.

September 19 11:40 PM

Kim

And that's the COVID + wildfires + TBD.

September 19 11:42 PM

Brian

The riots, the unemployment, locusts in the southern hemisphere, and a few other things. Yes.

September 19 11:43 PM

Brian

The main thing to be taught is self segregation. Extrapolate from that what you will...

September 19 11:46 PM

Kim

Because a centralized society is anathema to the solution.

September 19 11:53 PM

Brian

Not necessarily. A racially integrated society is certain failure, though. No matter the size. A planet full of white people could make several systems work, as long as the energy to run the system isn't finite... OR... the substance can be gathered from an external source. The problem with race is that the naturally determined pecking order will be attacked relentlessly. As is the case currently. Jealousy, in its most basic form.

September 19 11:58 PM

Kim

So we have to thoroughly self segregate away from all broken ways of living, e.g. Crude oil dependence, miscegenation, resource depletion.

September 20 12:01 AM

Brian

I know. It's daunting and seemingly impossible. Imagine what it's like from my position. I'm the guy that has to explain this to a violent, hostile, selfish, degenerate, and utterly stupid general populace that has spent the ast 100 years doing the exact opposite of Divine order regulated ideologies. Like I said, even if they don't know it yet, most people want me dead.

September 20 12:04AM

Kim

So much for "No hate"...

September 20 12:06 AM

Brian

That's what was so funny to me. Everyone is so concerned with appearing nice and cordial to each other in the moment, while simultaneously committing omnicide. Mass hysteria on a global level... but people think I'm crazy. LMAO

September 20 12:12 AM

Kim

In Hell appearances are misleading.

September 20 12:12 AM

Brian

From an external perspective, Earth humanity seems like a loony bin with the smell of a sewage treatment plant. And all of the residents are bragging about it...

September 20 12:13 AM

Brian

Basically... That's a very "nice" way of putting it, lol.

September 20 7:08 AM

Kim

I fell asleep. I texted you in my dreams. Anyway, I wonder how many people want to leave the loony bin, but are held back by momentum and ignorance.

September 20 7:08 AM

Kim

A factor is to what extent the ignorance is voluntary.

September 20 7:12 AM

Kim

Sometimes people think they are on track to breaking free but actually are not entirely.

September 20 7:15 AM

Brian

All of it. Selfishness is the foundation of the blinding element, while ignorance is the aftermath. Everyone's soul wants to leave it, but the draw to capitulate to herd mentality is extremely difficult to manage without a selfless disposition. After the build up of this dichotomy through generations, to the self, it feels like it's natural. The further humanity falls into this hole, the wider hell expands, and the more selfish people become. It's a feedback loop.

September 20 7:29 AM

Brian

The interesting part about selflessness is each individual time perspective. In other words, how far that perspective stretches beyond the boundaries of time... to the individual. Take my disposition as an example. I designed a system based on the caveats of humanity for the next 1000 generations, or roughly 20,000 years. While the people that designed Twitter have a difficult time seeing past 20 days. And yet, in a like minded society, Twitter executives seem like they're brilliant. You can tell a lot just by what people produce, but you can read their minds if you have the ability to discern their time perspective by the same means. Maybe this will help give some insight into how I see humanity for what it is, as opposed to what it thinks it is. Also, this perspective will help give insight to what selflessness really entails, and more importantly, the extent to how the selfish mind views it.

September 20 7:43 AM

Brian

This is the main reason why I do much better in person. You're right in thinking that I need to be heard in the moment to make a bigger impact. It's not what I'm saying that's the problem, but more so, how people receive it. I can see through the bullshit ensemble that people have developed for themselves in hell to cope with their dereliction to purpose. But what infuriates them, is they lack the ability to reciprocate the same way towards me. I spent over $20,000 dollars trying to give those video segments set up for that sole reason. Kassidi took that from everyone alive. Why? She just couldn't see me for what I am because of her own time perspective winning the internal debate. Billions of them out there, Kim. And they're all identical to me. It's funny because they all TRY to thrive on individualism. When the reality is they're all just clones of a selfish Jew ideological paradigm that they have no real way of understanding. Sad... to say the least.

September 20 7:45 AM

Brian

Oops. *identical to HER.

September 20 11:41 AM

Kim

I wrote you an e-mail. In reading these texts I have been thinking there might be a literal war on the selfish, it more than 144K were on the selfless side.

September 20 11:44 AM

Brian

I'll check it out. And yes. The Jews have been waging that war against humanity for the better part of 38,000 years.

September 20 11:45 AM

Kim

During our phonecall I did regret not recording it. I made a writeup which in time will get posted.

September 20 11:46 AM

Kim

I meant that the selfless would consider waging a counterwar if there were more of them. You mean that people get infuriated because they feel inferior to you?

September 20 11:54 AM

Brian

In so many words. It's draining to me because it comes across as a debate or fight. When in reality all I want to do is help, then go die in peace. People try to conflate their beliefs to what I am doing. Mental projection unmitigated. You've seen it repeatedly on 4chan. After beating my head against this wall, and getting fucked over by almost everyone I try to help for a year and a half now, I'm jaded and as close to burned out as I can ever remember being... in any life. I'm sorry that you're coming into this thing so close to the end. All I have left is honesty to give, and even that I try to hide sometimes. I'm sorry.

September 20 12:18 PM

Kim

How many agree this is hell but don't accept your solutions vs. Hhow many do not think this is hell at all?

September 20 12:20 PM

Brian

In America, almost everyone conflicts with that sentiment.

September 20 12:20 PM

Brian

That's a long email. Still reading it...

September 20 12:40 PM

Brian

Wow. You're very welcome, but again... I am not the one to thank. You found yourself, and were guided by your maker. I'm just a conduit. Nevertheless, thank you. Great job on the race. Look at the quotes as seeds you're sowing. You have to allow the plants time to sprout, then grow. People noticed. It may take a while for them to work up the courage to ask you questions, but it'll happen. It does seem like your maker was teaching you all kinds of lessons during the race from the sounds of it. Amazing how he can utilize other's emotions against them in real time, isn't it? Anyways, great job. Looking forward to your write up.

September 20 1:07 PM

Kim

Of the phonecall?

September 20 1:07 PM

Brian

Yeah. They're all good.

September 20 1:12 PM

Kim

Alright. Maybe if people see the connection between my performance and your lessons then they will be more open to listening.

September 20 1:12 PM

Kim

I know no amount of proof is never enough for some though.

September 20 1:13 PM

Brian

Exactly.

September 20 1:22 PM

Brian

Sorry I'm not more talkative. A bit of drama going on here. Not related to me. Don't worry.

September 20 1:41 PM

Kim

No apologies needed. Do what you need to do. Im limited to roughly 200 characters per message anyway.

September 20 1:42 PM

Brian

Are you getting everything I'm sending?

September 20 1:47 PM

Kim

Your last two messages were at 1:13 and 1:22PM. "Exactly" and "Sorry/Drama."

September 20 1:48 PM

Brian

I meant the long ones. Do you rec(ie)ve the long ones?

September 20 1:54 PM

Kim

Yes I do. I can receive long ones but not write them.

September 22 6:33 AM

Brian

Happy Twos day...

September 22 3:56 PM

Kim

You two. I'll send you another message later.

September 22 9:25 PM

Kim

I e-mailed you.

September 22 9:33 PM

Kim

I just saw your 4chan posts. I will also pray at 22:22. Mine is an hour different from yours so perhaps I will twice.

September 22 9:37 PM

Brian

I was wondering if you'd see those. Just spent time on the farm with Shane. Tagged my first baby cow. It was born this morning. I had to give him some instructions and set up a pour schedule. We're almost certain Saturday is the day. Sand arrived today. I'm excited about tonight...

September 22 9:57 PM

Kim

Very fine timing.

September 22 10:24 PM

Kim

Between the two of us you have 22:22 #2.

September 22 10:25 PM

Brian

Hahaha. Clever.

September 23 7:02 PM

Kim

Do you want to continue talking?

September 23 7:03 PM

Brian

Sure. Give me about 5 minutes.

September 23 7:12 PM

Kim

Im ready when you are.

September 23 7:13 PM

Brian

Do you want me to call you? If not I'm ready.

September 23 7:13 PM

Kim

I'll call you in about a minute

September 23 8:32 PM

Im ready.

September 23 8:33 PM

Brian

Me too

September 23 11:45 PM

Kim

Fine so far...

September 23 11:46 PM

Brian

Good. Let me know if you want any help.

September 23 11:53 PM

Kim

I've told her in the past that our species is killing itself and no one cares. So I just said that you say the same things.

September 23 11:54 PM

Kim

That made it easy for her to get the basic idea, but no details.

September 23 11:55 PM

Brian

Ah yes, the cryptic comments. I too am fluent in that dialect.

September 23 11:55 PM

Brian

I use that speech in 4chan often, when confronted by morons.

September 23 11:57 PM

Kim

She used the subject to tell me about “weird” things going on like riots and kidnapping attempts at a local wal-mart.

September 23 11:58 PM

Kim

She tied that in to say she is just concerned about such “weird things.” Little does she know...

September 23 11:58 PM

Brian

I'm lurking right now, and heard Seattle and New York are full of these dumbfucks.

September 23 11:59 PM

Brian

People can feel it, but their brains cannot comprehend. We talked about that. People might surprise you. You never know what they're really thinking.

September 24 12:07 AM

My mother does not have great conscious understanding but she has a decent intuition. As I said, she listens mainly out of compassion.

September 24 12:08 AM

I suppose the shortcoming is that very little certainly results from that. By the way, where in NY?

September 24 12:08 AM

Brian

I don't know. They just said Seattle and New York. I'm still lurking around.

September 24 1:03 AM

Kim

Time for sleep. Goodnight.

September 24 1:04 AM

Brian

Goodnight. Have a good “1”...

September 24 7:22 PM

Brian

Sold both eggs. Travel money secured.

September 24 8:55 PM

Brian

Shane's dad just passed...

September 24 11:21 PM

Kim

Will you visit with his family?

September 24 11:22 PM

Brian

I'll try to make it to the funeral, but I'm just going to let them be for now.

September 24 11:24 PM

Kim

Alright. I just posted the first two conversations from yesterday. The third got messed up and I've been trying to figure out how to recover it.

September 24 11:29 PM

Brian

I'll check it out. What do you think? Does it sound good?

September 24 11:37 PM

Kim

The sound quality is not the absolute best possible but it is sufficient.

September 25 12:15 PM

Brian

It sounds okay. I can understand it.

September 25 12:44 AM

Kim

It may test how much people want to listen to it.

September 25 5:24 PM

Brian

I listened to the entire first call. There's quite a few parts that are hard to understand, but most of it is okay. Interesting date on that modification picture... that's the year I was born. What a coincidence...

September 25 5:36 PM

Brian

I'm trying to listen to part 2, but I can't understand any of it.

September 25 7:25 PM

Kim

I should mention I did not turn on speakerphone until 4 mins 24 seconds.

September 25 7:32 PM

Kim

If you can I'd like to talk to you either later or tomorrow about the grail.

September 25 7:34 PM

Brian

Sure. I'll be busy for a couple hours, but I can text when I'm ready.

September 25 7:39 PM

Kim

Alright. I'll check in with you in 2-3 hours.

September 25 10:39 PM

Kim

30 mins

September 25 10:39 PM

Brian

Roger that. I'm ready.

September 25 11:08 PM

Kim

5 mins

September 25 11:16 PM

Kim

Ready

September 25 11:17 PM

Brian

Let's go...

September 26 12:19 PM

Kim

You would rather talk in the afternoon today?

September 26 12:36 PM

Brian

Yeah. That'd be better.

September 26 12:54 PM

Kim

I will text you in 90-120 minutes.

September 26 12:57 PM

Brian

Roger that.

September 26 2:55 PM

Kim

I'll be ready in 10 minutes.

September 26 2:56 PM

Brian

Okay.

September 26 2:57 PM

Brian

Give me like 20 minutes. I have to fold some laundry.

September 26 3:21 PM

Kim

Im ready when you are.

September 26 3:23 PM

Brian

I'm ready.

September 26 4:55 PM

Brian

Ready when you are.

September 26 5:01 PM

Kim

5 mins

September 26 5:13 PM

Kim

Should have said 10. Ready.

September 26 5:13 PM

Brian

Ready.

September 27 12:00PM

Kim

Perhaps I will call you around 3 or 4 again?

September 27 12:01PM

Brian

Sounds good.

September 27 12:09PM

Kim

Thank you.

September 27 3:02PM

Kim

It'll be closer to 4.

September 27 3:12PM

Brian

Roger that. I might be taking a nap. If I am don't think I'm ignoring you.

September 27 3:22PM

Kim

I'll text you first.

September 27 4:31PM

Kim

15-20 minutes?

September 27 4:54PM

Brian

That'll work.

September 27 4:55PM

Kim

You mean from now.

September 27 4:58PM

Brian

Oh... yeah. Just woke up.

September 27 4:59PM

Kim

Got it.

September 27 5:18PM

Kim

5 minutes?

September 27 5:18PM

Brian

Ready when you are.

September 27 5:27PM

Kim

Ready.

September 27 7:34PM

Kim

I'm ready when you are.

September 27 7:35PM

Brian

I'm ready.

September 28 1:22 PM

Kim

If I call you today it probably will not be until after 7 EST. I'll let you know.

September 28 4:07PM

Brian

Okay. No big deal.

September 28 6:46PM

Kim

It wont be before 8. Is it still feasible?

September 28 6:48PM

Brian

It's up to you. The night time is my daytime. That's still my morning.

September 28 7:01PM

Kim

Alright. I think I will. I'll let you know.

September 28 8:38PM

Kim

20 minutes from now?

September 28 8:38PM

Brian

Sure

September 28 8:39PM

Kim

Alright. I will text you.

September 28 9:03PM

Kim

I am ready when you are.

September 28 9:03PM

Brian

Ready.

September 29 6:39PM

Kim

I might take a break today and call you tomorrow afternoon.

September 29 6:40PM

Brian

I was thinking the same thing. I've been missing out on prayer time.

September 29 6:41PM

Brian

Did you see what time you sent me that text? heh

September 29 6:49PM

Kim

6:39. May you pray in peace (or whatever is needed).

September 29 8:39PM

Kim

I sent you two short e-mails.

September 29 9:58PM

Kim

Are you okay?

September 29 9:59PM

Brian

Yeah. I'm good. Sorry I didn't reply. I'm driving and praying.

September 29 10:04PM

Brian

I can't find the link to your bitchute page on my phone browser.

September 29 10:37PM

Kim

I have not been able to find it by searching yet, either.

September 30 11:51AM

Kim

How is it going? That video has 12 views and I have not shared it anywhere else yet.

September 30 12:49PM

Brian

Sleeping... If that's the one you linked to Robert, probably him and a few others around him.

September 30 1:46PM

Kim

Alright. I feel inclined to check.

September 30 1:48PM

Brian

I let them play through while I was falling asleep. One question... was that peanut brittle or glass you were munching on? heh

September 30 1:53PM

Kim

Carrots. I either ruined these recordings or provided evidence that they are genuine.

September 30 1:54PM

Kim

When I sent him the video I figured he might kick you out soon anyway. After I sent it I thought he might snap and kill you or himself.

September 30 1:56PM

Brian

I think he's too much of a weakling to do anything that dramatic. Who knows, though. I'll laugh at whatever he does. Catch 22.

September 30 2:03PM

Brian

It's interesting hearing myself. I didn't realize I spoke so slowly. There's a lot of funny stuff in there. I like hearing you laugh, and thinking about how others will too. Comic relief is important. Considering the subject matter we're discussing, it's probably the most important aspect.

September 30 2:05PM

Kim

On August 3 you said on 4chan, "I was surprised he didn't shoot me right then and there." (not sure if I sent this twice.)

September 30 2:09PM

Brian

It's funny because I bought him the gun he totes around open carry.

September 30 2:15PM

Kim

Alright.

September 30 2:15PM

Kim

If there is any pattern here it might be an inability to predict what exactly will happen.

September 30 2:16PM

Kim

At least, that is all that limited human eyes can discern.

September 30 2:16PM

Brian

Well yeah. Free will is always in play.

September 30 2:17PM

Brian

Prophecy is about playing the odds.

September 30 2:22PM

Kim

What are the odds here, if that's worth thinking about?

September 30 2:23PM

Brian

When predicting actions outside of human nature, prophecy is quite easy. That's a major factor in why I say what I say about the Earth. There are so many humans that need to change, the feedback loops are crystal clear.

September 30 2:23PM

Brian

What do you mean by "here?"

September 30 2:24PM

Kim

With Robert and your living situation.

September 30 2:33PM

Brian

Like I explained... Meredith is the wildcard. If it were solely up to Robert and his mom, I'm fairly certain it would already be done. Although, now... I'm seeing just how pathetic and weak Robert is. While getting to know him, I never saw this side of him. Spineless, and very unintelligent. I saw whispers of it when the restaurant was open, but now, he's apparently hiding from me AND his parents. No idea what his breaking point is. Then again, maybe he's doing some serious self reflection and is trying to rectify his actions. Doubt it, but it's possible.

September 30 2:39PM

Kim

I also have more unposted info on him, both in writing and audio. Not sure whether I would contact him again, or just leave him to find it.

September 30 2:40PM

Brian

I've also contemplated the greed factor. His mom thinks my "invention" is going to be worth a lot of money. They all know I'm not bullshitting anyone, so maybe they're all hoping I'll finish the grail, sell it, build more and kick down a bunch of "wealth" in monetary form to them. I'm not used to being around people like this. Very Jew-like. Greedy, lazy, foolish, and subversive. It's like you never really know exactly why they do what they do. Thing is... Meredith isn't really like that. He's a fairly hard working guy, or was anyways.

September 30 2:42PM

Brian

Just guessing, but he's probably paying attention. As far as our conversations go, post it. I ain't scurred. heh

September 30 2:45PM

Brian

You don't have to waste time on him specifically, though. If put to a higher standard and pushed to make a choice... all indications are saying he'll just hide or defer to mommy for a decision. Don't frustrate yourself.

September 30 2:46PM

Kim

Why would they expect you to give them money? And thanks for the "permission."

September 30 2:49PM

Brian

They're parasitic in nature. I can't tell you how many times I've explained how I'm not trying to get rich off of the grails. Maybe they just hear what they want to hear?

September 30 2:57PM

Kim

Reminds me of my parents. Interesting to see that someone can recognize divine energy technology while still being mentally attached to money.

September 30 3:01PM

Brian

I mean... I've had some very intricate and detailed conversations with Robert in private about all kinds of stuff. The restaurant goings on, The Hierarchy, technology, love, prophecy, his debts to me... it's never really certain from my perspective if he even realizes what I'm saying. He'll nod his head, or lie apparently just enough to get himself out of the moment's stress, or say what he thinks I want to hear, etc, but ultimately falls short of everything. Very... VERY used car salesman routine. He'll behave that way with a smile on his face. Once you start to see that, it's repulsive to most people. So, even if you try with him, it's generally just wasted effort. Just saying. No need to frustrate yourself with him. I can just about guarantee that whatever you do do or say to him, it won't have the effect you're aiming for.

September 30 3:07PM

Brian

That's the thing, loool. Maybe he really can't understand what I've said this whole time. Either that or he's just terrified that he's not worthy and is just kind of bullshitting his way through everything.

Doesn't matter. The conclusion from all this shit is that he's not to be trusted... ever again. Not much more to say. That's why I don't think he's worth your effort. Unpredictable, dishonest, and evidently selfish. Can't wait to get this grail finished and GTFO of here.

September 30 3:09PM

Kim

I at least wanted to make it clear that people anywhere can and do know what he has done.

September 30 3:10PM

Kim

Perhaps that is enough.

September 30 3:22PM

Kim

Any idea why he bothered with you in the first place?

September 30 3:22PM

Brian

I know what you're trying to do. Your "goals" are quite obvious. His aren't. Even if you accomplish your mission here, you'll never know if you accomplished your mission with him. All that awaits you is frustration. I know this because I've been around him long enough to see that shit happen to many different people.

September 30 3:23PM

Brian

Money.

September 30 3:26PM

Brian

He thought he saw a meal ticket and a free ride to unlimited degeneracy devoid of responsibility. Ever since then, he's apparently holding out hope that that is still a possibility.

September 30 3:28PM

Brian

Just like his mommy. The apple didn't fall far...

September 30 3:31PM

Kim

So it's not certain whether he has internalized any of your teachings at all.

September 30 3:32PM

Kim

I mean, if he thought you were "just crazy" he would not see the meal ticket. But he also is obviously not aligned with the message of the hierarchy.

September 30 3:34PM

Brian

Pretty much. Either that, or he did and rejected everything from the start, then just bullshitted his way through everything on a mission to use me for as much money as he possibly could in the process.

September 30 3:37PM

Kim

Alright. The larger significance is the possibility of running into the same thing in other people.

September 30 3:40PM

Brian

Without a doubt, at this point, I'm absolutely certain he is a very selfish man. Whether he's intelligent enough to have concocted a plan of such extreme subversion then implemented it from the very beginning... remains unclear. Again, doesn't matter. The equation's summation won't vary now. I'm done, and have been done for a couple of months now. I told him directly to his face that very thing. The day after that discussion, he behaved as though we were still best friends. Shit was weird. Sociopath, psychopath, extreme short term memory loss... I don't know.

September 30 3:43PM

Brian

His nickname people were calling him when the restaurant was open was Norman Bates... just to give you an idea.

September 30 3:45PM

Brian

That's why destroying money is so important. Until that happens, ANYONE can try to do something like this to anyone. Maybe he should have been a politician. LMAO

September 30 3:47PM

Brian

Does Minari mean anything to you?

September 30 3:50PM

Kim

A movie?

September 30 3:50PM

Brian

Yes, but does it have any deeper meaning?

September 30 3:51PM

Kim

Complete guess. Does it have anything to do with being genuine?

September 30 3:52PM

Brian

Hahaha, maybe.

September 30 3:53PM

Brian

Well shit... this is from Google. "to threaten some one with death, crucifixion, torture, war: minitari (minari) alicui mortem, crucem et tormenta, bellum."

September 30 3:56PM

Brian

Interesting that there's a space between "some" and "one" on Google. Should just be someone... but then again, these are like messages in most cases.

September 30 3:56PM

Kim

Is minari a recent imdb notification you got, then you looked up the meaning of the word?

September 30 3:57PM

Brian

Yep.

September 30 3:58PM

Brian

Just got it right now. Sent it to Nathan.

September 30 4:03PM

Kim

Either the queen's gambit involves minaret, or she is trying to oppose someone attempting to commit minaret. ???

September 30 4:07PM

Brian

Welcome to my world, lol. It's fun trying to figure this stuff out, isn't it? At the very least, it adds excitement.

September 30 4:07PM

Brian

Even if it's morbid... when you lose your fear of death, everything is humorous.

September 30 4:09PM

Kim

Does clinging to warmth keep people afraid of death?

September 30 4:13PM

Brian

A severed relationship to your maker is really the only thing that can do that, and rightfully so. Being afraid of the pain that possibly accompanies death is an entirely different matter. The uncertainty of what follows actual death from human life, only has "1" reason for existing in ANY psyche.

September 30 4:15PM

Kim

So a person might still fear pain while being connected to their maker?

September 30 4:18PM

Brian

Definitely. Physical pain sucks for a reason. The fear of death itself is asinine, though. It's like being afraid of breathing. Everyone will die. It's inevitable. There's no real reason to fear it... unless you create a reason to.

September 30 4:22PM

Kim

I thought in ego death one fears nothing, including pain. Maybe all the self-pity and other degenerate emotions are taken away, leaving only real physical pain?

September 30 4:29PM

Brian

Depends on how much pain, and what kind of pain. Most of my "pain" will be uncertainty about whether I did enough for humanity to survive. It's all I think about now. Physical pain is attached to the physical body. After death, there is no physical body, so there's no real memory of it in a conventional sense. Consider pain you've experienced while dreaming. Do you remember how much it "hurt?" Probably not, because it never really existed. Physical pain tolerance is what you're referring to. And yes, you can train yourself to accept it without reaction. Think about my hidradenitis suppurativa. Same thing. Most people would faint doing what I do every day. Doesn't mean I don't feel it. It just means I've accepted it and tolerate it differently.

September 30 4:35PM

Brian

That uncertainty is not about myself, by the way. It's about caring for others. Totally different from how most people deal with real stress. The stress itself is what the actual "pain" is, and believe me... it's physical AND emotional.

September 30 4:39PM

Kim

So you are not conflicted over whether you have done your best. What hurts, and what is uncertain, is the fate of others.

September 30 4:41PM

Kim

My question came from wondering whether putting "mommy" (physical and social comforts) before "daddy" (maker) is a common and fundamental error.

September 30 4:42PM

Kim

That ties back into people betraying you with such things in hand as alcohol and sex.

September 30 4:42PM

Brian

Yes, exactly. My stress originates in my constant push towards trying to create the purpose within the minds of others, that I have had for my entire life.

September 30 4:43PM

Kim

That was text #222 in this particular thread in my inbox.

September 30 4:43PM

Brian

Very astute observation... but no bullshit... Robert really calls his mother that in public. And he's 50 years old. Shit is beyond creepy.

September 30 4:45PM

Brian

Good to see you're paying attention to that kind of stuff now. A little more "stress" just exited my body. Thank you.

September 30 4:49PM

Kim

Another reason for this line of questioning is literal warmth. I've been trying to push my body's ability to tolerate cold.

September 30 4:49PM

Kim

Wim Hof is the master. He can withstand freezing temperatures for hours with no clothes. What are we really capable of?

September 30 4:50PM

Kim

And it seems he does not lose dexterity in his hands or anything like that.

September 30 4:53PM

Brian

I've heard of him. Very interesting subject material. All kinds of possibilities are possible. The extent of what each individual body can endure in regards to pain is a personal conquest, though. There's no telling what kind of parameters could be set from a collective perspective.

September 30 4:58PM

Kim

I often feel like I could do better and handle more, if only I tapped into the right "thing" or got on the correct course.

September 30 4:58PM

Kim

On the topic of pain, what is humanity's maker's suffering like?

September 30 5:00PM

Brian

Stress. Imagine the pain and suffering of losing your children to rampant drug addiction and unmitigated selfishness, when you know that they are just killing themselves.

September 30 5:01PM

Brian

It would make you not want to live anymore, if only not to witness them committing suicide.

September 30 5:01PM

Kim

Does it bother him that his body is withering away, or are his feelings focused on us?

September 30 5:08PM

Brian

His "body" doesn't exist in the same dimensional platform to that of a human, so the same ideals do not pertain. Everything he does is focused on his creations. He lacks the ability to ignore what happens here. Humanity is force feeding him this "pain," and he has nowhere to go to ignore it. It's an ever present attachment. There is no escape from his perspective other than expiration. To a human, it's unfathomable. Which is why humans are not authorized to create a new species... yet.

September 30 5:09PM

Brian

It's like trying to get a toddler to understand what his Navy seal father is going through in Afghanistan to provide for his children.

September 30 5:11PM

Kim

He has to watch every single stupid think we think and do? Poor dude...

September 30 5:12PM

Brian

Now try to imagine that same toddler putting out lit cigarettes on his mother, shooting heroin, torturing the dog... after kiling the cat, and telling his dad every time he speaks to him on the phone that he's a fag, and he can't wait to burn the house down...

September 30 5:13PM

Brian

It's much worse than that... he has to actually experience it. Not just watch it.

September 30 5:14PM

Kim

Does that mean he sees through our eyes and feels what we feel?

September 30 5:14PM

Brian

And his maker experiences what he experiences, and his maker experiences what he experiences, and so on and so forth.

September 30 5:16PM

Brian

Yes. Not just humans. Everything with his creations parameters. Animals, insects... even the Earth itself. Pretty fucked up, isn't it?

September 30 5:18PM

Kim

That is an unfathomable amount of data and intensity of feeling. And that includes a lot of unpleasant feeling in this case.

September 30 5:18PM

Brian

I've cried so many times thinking about it, I'm surprised I haven't had real physical damage from just the stress of worrying about him. Shit... I probably have and can't really focus on it.

September 30 5:19PM

Kim

So the beings we really need to extend the golden rule to are those in the hierarchy- not just other humans.

September 30 5:20PM

Brian

Correct. "Unfathomable" from a human perspective, but most fucking definitely not... from The Hierarchy's perspective. Maybe now you're getting a better idea why they're very displeased to put it lightly.

September 30 5:21PM

Brian

That's what real love is all about. Yes.

September 30 5:25PM

Kim

That all came from me asking you about Robert a few hours ago.

September 30 5:26PM

Kim

The human error is in trying to steal from "mommy" instead of serve our "father."

September 30 5:27PM

Brian

Very, very well said, young lady. Genius. Takes me like 40,000 words to say that, hahaha.

September 30 5:28PM

Kim

There are many details.

September 30 5:29PM

Kim

One reason for the error is that we do need "mommy." We currently need food, water, and warmth to survive.

September 30 5:29PM

Kim

But we blind ourselves to the fact that our "father" can help us to procure those things better than we can do so on our own.

September 30 5:30PM

Brian

Yeah. Takes a lot to get the gestalt behind that sentiment. It was funny, though. Imagine going into an Applebees and having someone ask you what is humanity's main problem right now, and that's all you said. LMAOOOOO

September 30 5:32PM

Brian

The blindness is in realizing that he already did... tens of thousands of years ago. And now... humanity has reached the absolute extent of being as far away from that place as they have ever been.

September 30 5:35PM

Brian

Hell.

September 30 5:35PM

Kim

And you can't put the fires out that quickly.

September 30 5:39PM

Brian

Not alone. It could be fast, but extremely unlikely. The more your eyes open to the reality, the "healthier" he becomes. It is a very intricate and delicate process to cure demonism...

September 30 5:39PM

Brian

Very dangerous process.

September 30 5:40PM

Kim

How is it any more dangerous than demonism itself?

September 30 5:41PM

Brian

Once all of the antidote providers are eradicated... all hope is lost.

September 30 5:42PM

Kim

Right. That's you and why you have lived fairly carefully.

September 30 5:44PM

Yes, ma'am. The stakes could not be any higher. I'm also the last Christ. I've been very well aware of the caveats involved here. Precarious, to say the least.

September 30 5:45PM

Kim

Yet you still gave all kinds of people opportunities to help you directly.

September 30 5:46PM

Brian

Nah... you did that. I allowed it because you had a lot of potential.

September 30 5:47PM

Brian

Look at all we've discussed. That wouldn't have happened if you didn't do what you did.

September 30 5:47PM

Kim

You mean everyone who has talked to you at all?

September 30 5:47PM

Brian

Oh. I thought you meant monetarily.

September 30 5:48PM

Kim

I should be more clear. In spite of the dangers, you have given people opportunities to interact with and even work closely with you.

September 30 5:49PM

Kim

There were cases where it might have been clear early on that it wa *(message cut off)

September 30 5:50PM

Brian

Yeah, that's my job. I knew the dangers involved. This is hell. Demons everywhere.

September 30 5:50PM

Kim

was not going to work. But you let everyone choose their own fate. (that message got messed up)

September 30 5:52PM

Brian

Correct. Everyone has the ability to transcend. Even demons. I don't be discourminatin'... heh.

September 30 5:53PM

Kim

So no one can say that they were not given a real chance.

September 30 5:53PM

Brian

Unless your name is Jones, James, or Robert... now anyways. Wasn't like that in the beginning.

September 30 5:54PM

Brian

Correct. Making judgment easier on my superiors, AND myself in the process.

September 30 5:55PM

Kim

If anyone with those names understands why you adhere to that guideline, they should know what they need to do to rectify that situation.

September 30 5:58PM

Brian

Yeah. Just too many wasted opportunities on them. They're not completely fucked, but I'm not taking a chance on them again.

September 30 6:04PM

Brian

Battery is dying. I'm texting you and Nathan. I'm going to have to take a break for a while.

September 30 6:07PM

Kim

Alright. We texted today instead of talking on the phone. Thanks for answering my questions.

September 30 6:08PM

Brian

Thanks for asking them.

October 2 2020 12:36AM

Kim

I e-mailed you.

October 2 2020 3:18AM

Brian

I'm replying now.

October 2 2020 3:28AM

Kim

Alright.

October 2 2020 10:32AM

Kim

I e-mailed you at 9:43.

October 2 2020 7:55PM

Kim

I posted multiple things today. How is it going?

October 2 7:58PM

Brian

I got your email. There's a lot of questions in there that I don't have the answers to. I've been sleeping most of the day. No dreams that I can recall. I'm going to spend the evening praying. My confidence is in the toilet right now and I don't know what else to do. Nathan and I sent texts to each other just now, and I had to endure some more self hatred due to the prophecy being broken and having to explain that to him. All I know is that I'm sick of this feeling. I'm really just a tired man right now. Worn out by everything. I'm sorry. Thank you for your work. I'll check it out before I go pray.

October 2 8:26PM

Brian

Don't not do the race because of me. Fuck... like I don't feel bad enough right now. If you're asking my opinion, I say you should do it. Enjoy your life... please!

October 2 8:27PM

Kim

You think I want to engage in some rootless activity while I piss away the last week I have with you?

8:29PM

Brian

I'm powering my phone down. You're going to make me cry. Just do the race. Please.

8:29PM

Kim

I truly do not want to go under these circumstances. I told you I don't do well if I'm not on a righteous path. I definitely would not finish.

8:30PM

Kim

There is literally no point in going if it is not the #1 thing I can be doing at the present.

8:32PM

Brian

You have my blessing. Just do the race. It's who you do. Be who you are.

8:32PM

Kim

No.

8:35PM

Kim

Interesting this is the argument we are having. I always thought it would result from me fucking up. Instead you're telling me to fuck up when I don't want to.

8:37

Brian

How do you know that's fucking up? What if not going is fucking up? What if that's the first few steps on the "yellow brick road?"

8:39

Kim

I told you, it will occupy my attention for the next week and a half. The thought that this race is more important than working with you is illogical.

8:41PM

Kim

I am trying to figure out what could possibly be the higher significance of this conversation.

8:42PM

Kim

Maybe we're in the final tests of who gives a fuck.

8:42PM

Brian

Remember the prophecy. If you are Dorothy, I'm not going to be there to help you during your journey. Besides, it's not like you're going to be running nonstop all the time. I'll be available anytime you have the opportunity to talk or text.

8:43PM

Brian

Lol. Thanks. I needed that, even if it wasn't meant to be funny.

8:43PM

Brian

Keep in mind... you never know. I might even meet you at the finish line.

8:44PM

Brian

That's what the prophecy says will happen.

8:44PM

Kim

Yeah right Brian, like you're going to drive through Jew York City straight into the belly of the beast!

8:45PM

Kim

I don't even want to do it... But, again, I am willing to if that is what I am guided to do.

8:45PM

Brian

Ask me to.

8:46PM

Kim

By "it" I mean the drive more so than the run.

8:46PM

Brian

When dealing with 100% free will, that's why it's such a difficult path.

8:47PM

Brian

You wanted to do it before these conversations took place.

8:48PM

Kim

Yeah but my ultimate want is to transcend. If circumstances change and the actions needed at a given time change, I have to go with that.

8:49PM

Kim

Plus, before yesterday the primary obstacle was indeed the drive. Aside from the grail stuff, of course.

8:50PM

Brian

Why? Money?

8:52PM

Brian

You have something waiting for you.

8:53PM

Kim

Because it's NYC. And I've never driven that far. I usually stay within 200-250 miles of home.

8:53PM

Kim

I don't care for burning up resources that much.

8:54PM

Kim

Yes I have the exact coordinates of the race's location as well as all the details of the event. But why would you go?

8:56PM

Kim

For your sake I'd rather head toward you than further away. There could be a reason it has to be here though. We shall meet deep in Hell.

8:59PM

Brian

We haven't been formally introduced. I'm powering my phone down now, no bullshit. Check your PayPal. Sending me anything back now will just make Jews wealthier. And fuck those guys, heh. You have to use crude oil to destroy crude oil. Look at it as an opportunity to do that. I'll be disappointed if you don't do this race... if that gives you anymore motivation. Have a good "1"...

October 3 12:06AM

Brian

I'm back

3:55AM

Kim

Im awake.

3:57AM

Brian

I am too.

3:58AM

Kim

I would like to call you.

3:58AM

Brian

Okay

7:47AM

Kim

I will send you race info soon.

9:32PM

Brian

Okay. I did a map check. 26 hour drive from here...

9:40PM

Kim

The highway's jammed with broken heroes on a last chance power drive. Everybody's out on the run tonight but there's no place left to hide.

10:50PM

Brian

I don't understand...

10:56PM

Kim

That's Born to Run by Bruce Springsteen.

10:56PM

Brian

Oic

10:57PM

Kim
I e-mailed you.

October 4 1:56PM

Kim

Right now I'm

8:05PM

Brian

Anything's possible. It's not a definite strategy I'm determined to capitulate to. But as you can see from the thread I just posted in, nothing is changing. If anything, I'm even more motivated to leave.

8:13PM

Brian

It will be chaotic. There will be an enormous amount of events that pull attention away from transcendence ideals. It's a difficult process to attempt this path even now. That will multiply significantly in my stead. It's cause and effect on a planetary scale. From my superiors' perspective it's equivalent to them saying "You want to ignore him.. then we will ignore you." Basically...

8:15PM

Kim

Things will get crazier. But humanity is basically asking for it.

8:15PM

Brian

Exactly.

October 9 2020

12:47AM

Kim

I have a question. Why is the first couple to unite under their maker what will make “everything change”?

1:02AM

Brian

They'll be the first to access communications beyond language in a very long time. Internal Harmonic Resonant Capitulation on a human to human level. Eventually the entire species will be on that level. Everyone will be “psychic,” essentially. Everyone who is not... which is what everyone is dealing with right now... will be seen for what they actually are; retarded and crazy. I just got back from dinner. I'll be available to talk in about 10 minutes.

1:05AM

Kim

Thank you.

1:15AM

Brian

Are you going to call?

Kim

1:24AM

Yes. In five minutes.

8:35PM

Brian

Sweet. I just woke up. Going to do laundry, pack up the rest of my stuff and go. I'll be on the road by midnight.

9:40PM

Kim

Good to hear. I took throgs neck bridge instead of henry hudson/queensboro, by the way.

10:09PM

Kim

Yes.

10:38PM

Kim

Thank you for everything. What you have taught me has given me the ability to say this: I love you.

10:40PM

Brian

Now don't get me all teary eyed. I'll be on my way soon. You're very welcome. Thank you for being interested. I love you too. Now go win that race!

10:48PM

Brian

My life: the text. Great stuff!

10:54PM

Kim

Thank you. I will see you soon.

October 11 2020

2:11AM

Kim

Please pray.

12:29PM

Brian

I'm here...

12:31PM

Kim

Stop n shop or trailhead? I'll come out to meet you.

12:31PM

Brian

The trailhead.

October 13 2020

4:01PM

Brian

Good luck. I hope you win!

(This message sent again at 9:44PM.)

October 20 2020

11:32AM

Brian

Nathan and I worked on the videos nonstop for 4 days while I was there. I'm heading west now. Not really sure where I'll stop, but when I do, I'll catch up with you. I'm not ignoring you, just trying to keep my phone charged.

3:06PM

Kim

Good to hear. Thank you.

8:46PM

Brian

Hey everyone. Let me start by saying please do not...

10:18PM

Brian

That's all you need. I just parked in front of Devil's Tower. The Orionids meteor shower peaks tonight. If you have a clear sky, check it out.

October 21 2020

5:12PM

Brian

<https://boards.4channel.org/diy/thread/1934215>

7:32PM

Kim

fbp, eh?

7:32PM

Brian

Just saw your post. Thank you.

October 24 2020

5:01PM

Brian

Is anyone interested?

9:45PM

Brian

Wut?

9:48PM

Brian

They did. I wear the scars. I have a plan, but you probably won't like it. It's about time to wrap this thing up...

9:48PM

Brian

All young people are disgusted. Makes sense.

9:50PM

Kim

Will you tell me or is it a surprise?

9:55PM

Kim

I could spill the beans first. Last Friday I mailed out a letter to your ex-wife. I put the pieces together and found your address.

9:57PM

Kim

If you read my last e-mail, the "tinman" is Erik Prince. I found one contact to him.

9:57PM

Brian

I'll tell you. I've been praying a lot while that thread is going about what Jesus said on the cross just before he did. It's disputed, but the main gist was about his "father." I'm tired of being called crazy... so I'm considering giving the option to my dad. Kind of a final test for him. Multiple choice. 1) He tells me to fuck off, then I shut down my phone for good and do that very thing. 2) He works with me, which is just about impossible for him to do. 3) I allow him to send me to a mental hospital, which will probably end with drugs and a sheltered environment.

9:57PM

Kim

9:58PM

Kim

9:58PM

Brian

I'll hold off for as long as possible...

9:59PM

Brian

I really am getting sick of this treatment. It's time to force the issue.

9:59PM

Kim

10:03PM

Brian

Well, he should have everything he needs then. Not much I could do that I haven't already done. In my opinion, he'll probably think I'm crazy too. Then I'll get into another 6 day argument that will probably end in a stalemate. I'm sorry, it's just so frustrating.

10:05PM

Kim

Did anyone respond to your 19-person message?

10:06PM

Kim

10:06PM

Kim

10:07PM

Brian

Some did. No real strange replies. Most people just ignored me... I did message my ex-wife and her dad separately. They're aware, but still don't care.

10:10PM

Brian

I really do appreciate all of your effort, but this doesn't seem to be going anywhere.

10:14PM

Kim

Would you allow someone such as myself to talk to your father before he makes his decision?

10:16PM

Brian

I don't care, but I don't think it will matter. He's probably the smartest person I've ever met, but by far and away the most arrogant. If you warn him I'm coming he might even skip town just to ignore the situation all together. I was going to surprise him at his doorstep...

10:20PM

Kim

What do you expect if you do that? Let him know the situation will be made public as much as possible.

10:22PM

I expect him to “forsake” me, complete the last step of the biblical prophecy, then I can just disappear. Finally content at how much I've done already being enough.

10:33PM

Brian

He kind of already did that. I sent him that text. Not a peep. My mom too. I know how everyone feels. It's just difficult keeping up the momentum. The Hunter Biden garbage grabbed all of 4chan's attention, so /diy/ is a ghost town now. I feel like I'm out of options and time. I've been through this mental hospital shit in several other timelines. I can tell you how that will go if you'd like.

10:41PM

Kim

T Rex's relatives show up and eat everyone- or something to that effect.

10:47PM

Brian

A prophetic assessment. It's quite simple. I get the most overworked affirmative action hire fresh out of school. Proceed to make them look like a fool easily. While afraid of losing their job, they run it up the chain of command. The bureaucratic hierarchy more concerned with their yearly bonus than doing their job, recommend a large ensemble of drugs that basically put me in a catatonic state. My family feels vindicated, and I rot in a hospital bed until the cataclysm hits. Everybody loses...

10:48PM

Brian

It never varies...

...

10:59PM

Brian

Because of the nature of the information. The really fucked up part is the majority of the information I'm giving came before my realization. And it's indisputable. Mathematical. Certain. It's not even up for debate. It's like the Carrington event stuff in the thread. Nobody is disputing it's a certainty other than idiots. The crude oil economy stuff I talk bout... same thing. Ecosystem collapse and species going extinct... SAME THING. I just don't know how to retort against people that dispute a mathematically certain fact with anything other than ridicule.

11:05PM

Brian

It also has to do with the zeitgeist of the current society. Everything is fast, short, and sudden. When they're confronted with information that takes a significant amount of time to fully comprehend, it's immediately rejected.

11:12PM

Brian

Take Phyllis Schlemmer. She channeled the Nine Principles. Humanity got Star Trek as a result... but that was a much different zeitgeist, and an overwhelmingly white demographic controlling the pulse of the nation. Barely any slang, no home entertainment beyond records, reading was the top leisure activity, EVERYTHING was inexpensive, trust was high, and records on people were in paper form. Nobody could just disassemble an entire person's life by using their phone. And if that information was unavailable, they didn't hate the person for not displaying fucking selfies and Twitter posts for every dumbfuck in the world to find every special snowflake just like them. Shit was just different. People are the problem, not what I'm saying.

11:13PM

Control. The Jews were losing it, so they attacked. They seem to have beat me to the punch this time. They got everyone to hate me before I even awakened.

11:18PM

Kim

Would it make any difference to your family if they knew I love you?

11:22PM

Brian

Probably not. They'd just think you're crazy too. Everyone would make that snap judgment without listening to anything I've said to you. Do you see why I stressed arrogance so much when we first started talking? Literally everyone is arrogant and selfish. Before anyone could even pretend to listen to you, they'd have to at least be meek, humble, and/or curious. During an election... might be the most difficult time to get any American to be any of those things.

11:33PM

Brian

Yep. The Jews mind fucked everyone. It's so frustrating. Just checked the thread. Someone posted TL;DR with a picture of a dog and some "don't worry, we're all fucked anyways" type shit. How ironic considering our present conversation...

11:50PM

Brian

When I went through Albuquerque, that's when I thought of the dad thing. Been in my thoughts ever since.

October 25 2020

12:23AM

Brian

It's not about now. It's about the aftermath. You're not in danger because you won't be considered family. Some people invariably feel every relative of mine is "evil" and they attack.

10:51AM

Brian

Generally speaking, no. It's complicated, but both extremes tend to come down on them. Those who are with me tend to hate them for putting me in a position to get killed, and those who hate me want to destroy everything about me, family included, just to spite me.

1:14PM

Brian

There's numerous ways to do that. Yes, it would work, but it just makes the project that much less attainable and expensive to the masses.

Kim

(missing; 3D printer question)

4:26PM

Brian

It's a good route to take, but again, the 3d printer would have to be very tall.

October 26 2020

7:40PM

Brian

I refuse to continue consuming resources that are better suited for young people like yourself and your children. I've taken a lot of flak about the disability thing, but as you've just learned, I'm selfless. It's hard for people to understand what that's like. If she thinks a pyramid is an outlandish idea, show her the Ames Monument. It's not even a difficult thing to do with a small workforce, but it does take a group of people working on it. That guy in the thread that read my book... he's okay. I responded to him. Been running from the snow all day. It's like humanity's maker is pushing me away from Albuquerque. He must know I'm serious. They're expecting 5 inches tonight. The Djs on the radio are all freaking out. They're like WTF is happening!? Lol... that gave me a chuckle. It's been a hard day. A lot of tough decisions on the horizon. I'm sorry that I dump that kind of shit on you. I get such high hopes, and every fucking time these cunts on 4chan just stomp on them. I really

8:17PM

Brian

I get such high hopes, and every fucking time these cunts on 4chan just stomp on them. I really don't even know who to talk to now. They were supposed to be “the guy.”

8:19PM

Brian

They're not necessarily for living in, I just thought 2 birds 1 stone when I said that. The “hospital” type pyramid would go on the roof, and the food would grow on the sides. I guess it's 3 birds 1 stone, heh.

8:24PM

Brian

There'd be a large complex built other than the pyramids. Just design it to accommodate... if that's what you want. Anything is possible. You're not hamstrung by a stringent set of rules... other than the material used. If that isn't the focus, you're back in hell.

8:40PM

Brian

What's Project Avalon? And not all of the stone needs to be granite. Definitely for the internal matrix of the “great pyramid” structure, but there's options. I highly recommend granite for the majority of the construction materials, simply due to longevity.

8:46PM

Brian

I'll visit if you start something.

8:50PM

Brian

Interesting. I remember project Camelot from a long time ago. Art Bell days.

9:15PM

Brian

Any of them will do. I just registered. We'll see if they take me seriously. I was honest, but that hasn't worked out too well in the past, lol. The message said it might take a week to approve...

9:20PM

Brian

Membership.

9:23PM

Brian

Wow. It just got dark, and I'm already seeing action in the skies. Maybe I was supposed to sign up there all along. This always happens at big moments.

9:25PM

Brian

It's weird because literally, right above me is the only clear sky in all directions now.

9:25PM

Brian

Yeah. They wanted all kinds of information.

9:31PM

Brian

Yep. The storms are all around me. This is a nice rest area, too. My maker knew I had a rough day. Really rough. Almost threw in the towel...

9:39PM

Brian

For fucking reals... I can only take so many punches. I'm just perusing the Hollyweird thread. Is this a more liberal kind of board? As soon as I start talking about purity, will they ban me?

10:12PM

Brian

The clouds swallowed the sky and its raining now. Might snow later.

10:15PM

Kim

Snow in New Mexico while the temp is in the 40s in New York... Time to get out of dodge?

10:19PM

Brian

Watch how many people say hurr durr climate change is bullshit... that live in NM.

10:20PM

Brian

Like I said, the places that fluctuate don't matter. The question you have to ask is, what's happening in the arctic regions.

10:28PM

Kim

That's why the proper term is global warming?

10:36PM

Brian

That's acceptable, but the focus should be on the human controlled mechanism; CO2. It should be "CO2 saturation," or something like that. Acidification and sea level rise is what threatens the thermohaline conveyor. The sun varies, meaning Earth temperatures will vary from region to region, but the CO2 levels rising traps the heat, mainly in the oceans, distributes that heat insulated by the surface water temperature to the arctic regions and behaves like a swamp cooler above, and pummels the land from below. All because CO2 levels continue to rise, and the phytoplankton cannot keep up. It's a feedback loop issue and the surface temperature doesn't really encapsulate the problem. But yeah, you could say "global warming," but it's not always about atmospheric temperature trends.

10:37PM

Brian

That's simplifying it for a soundbite to appease or rile up (depending on your motive) the retard masses.

10:41PM

Brian

Just to be clear, if we lose the thermohaline conveyor, the weather patterns that produce a human habitable temperate climate will die. Ice ball Earth, in other words. The thermohaline conveyor is the most important system on Earth. It's not to be fucked with or taken lightly. And that's the real concern with "global warming."

10:45PM

Sea level rise is a foolish hill to die on for morons. If the salinity changes to the point of submerging Florida (which is very far north of the equator), we will lose the thermohaline conveyor. Worrying about beachfront property submerging in the USA is a prime example of someone who is utterly clueless about the real concern. And in so doing out themselves as a fucking idiot... or a politician. Same/same.

10:48PM

Kim

What do you mean by, the heat pummels the land from below?

10:52PM

Kim

Because it's insulated by the surface water. And the land that it pummels is ice.

10:53PM

Brian

The heat gets trapped in the depths of the thermohaline conveyor when it heads to the arctic regions. It creates a situation where the sea ice stops getting produced and heats the land directly on the coastlines. This is Greenland's main problem right now. The North Atlantic current pummels the entire coastline with warmer than normal temperatures and defrosts the entire coastline. It's like a double whammy. Above and below.

10:59PM

Kim

Do you know why people do not understand this? Was Al Gore correct, and the "global warming" nomenclature mislead people?

11:00PM

Brian

I learned about this when I read about the satellite called Tom and Jerry. Might have a different name now, and I'm sure that's not official, but that's what I remember the article called it. Anyways, it's a pair of satellites that measure gravitational draw from landmasses as it passes over them. Something wasn't right about the readings they were getting about Greenland. The surface ice would accumulate, but the readings said it was still losing more pull than it should. Yes... ice and permafrost affect the gravity of the whole fucking Earth. Trippy, I know. Anyways, NASA started to check deep water around the coast, and sure enough, the land was getting pummeled from below. The deep water was warmer than the surface water. Look it up. Fascinating stuff.

11:00PM

Brian

Al Gore is a politician/fucking idiot. Same/same.

11:02PM

Brian

I've never even watched his goofy movie, although I've been accused of that more than a thousand times. Also by fucking idiots. Heh.

11:04PM

Kim

So did people reject the info because of how he presented it or not necessarily?

11:09PM

Kim

For my part I was concerned about other environmental problems but both sides of the climate debate looked like they had an agenda, so I let the issue go.

11:10PM

Brian

He politicized the scientific method and created an emotional debate where there shouldn't be one. Now every feminist, liberal, Democrat fucktard says stupid shit like "believe in science." When they're as fucked in the head for creating that jargon as the people they're accusing of idiocy. Apologies, but if you haven't noticed I'm trying to eliminate emotional shit from the scientific method. It bleeds into everything a cunt politician says these days. It's one of the main reasons why both sides of the political coin should suck start a 12 gauge, heh. All of them are equally retarded. I heard Trump say "Who me? I love the environment." I almost puked.

11:13PM

Brian

Seriously, "believe in science" is one of the dumbest oxymoron laden terminologies that has ever been created. It's like saying we should believe in a calculator. It makes me grind my teeth listening to shit like that.

11:17PM

Brian

If you can't tell, I get pretty animated when discussing the Earth systems that keep the biosphere alive. Humanity is not the only species suffering.

11:20PM

Brian

Plus you kind of gave me a boost in spirits showing me this new forum. I have a glimmer of hope again. SO IT'S ALL YOUR FAULT! Just kidding.

11:21PM

Kim

I keep dragging this shit out. Sorry.

11:22PM

Brian

LMAOOOOO

11:23PM

Brian

You keep finding new ways for me to discuss old shit I learned. Touche! I haven't talked about those satellites in years.

11:26PM

Kim

Where did you get most of the info related to the environment?

11:27PM

Brian

Imagine all the stuff my old friends could tell you about the stuff I used to talk to them about. When I go into these rants in person I'm quite funny about it.

11:28PM

Brian

Holy shit! That's a very diverse question. Mostly reading and the internet. I focused on the real in depth nerdy shit most people ignore.

11:29PM

Brian

The storm is here. It's loud in my car.

11:31PM

Brian

Hahaha! I turned the key on to roll up the windows and "losing my religion" was playing. Pertinent to our discussion...

11:32PM

Kim

What's the religion- "believe in science"?

11:33PM

Brian

That's what I was thinking.

11:35PM

Kim

Alright. There's an ultramarathon runner named John Fegyveresi. He is known for being one of few to have completed a race called the Barkley Marathons.

11:36PM

Kim

He works as a glaciologist. He has done a lot of his work in the west Antarctic ice sheet divide. I think he has a talk on youtube.

11:38PM

Brian

Probably gets ridiculed regularly.

11:38PM

Kim

I don't know. I think the team drills into ice and extracts ice cores. I haven't read a lot yet.

11:39PM

Kim

That's an ideal elite athlete situation, by the way: succeed in the sport and bring attention to something important. I would not know about him otherwise.

11:44PM

Brian

I respect the work people like doctorates do, but they're not diverse. All people like that generally know is "CO2 bad." All sides must partake in the fix, otherwise it's just another fight that will ultimately end up unresolved and ignored. By all means, drop some knowledge bombs on him, but don't expect a miracle. Highly educated people are the most arrogant. That's just a fact of life right now.

11:46PM

Brian

Plus most of them want to take credit for shit to keep their cushy lives funded by whatever political foray they lean towards. He might not be that way, that's just my overwhelming experience with people like that. Go into it reserved so you're not let down.

11:47PM

Brian

I have to shut my phone down soon. Battery is low.

11:50PM

Kim

Alright. Thank you for all the information. I hope the phone charger works. I'll keep my eye on Project Avalon.

11:50PM

Brian

Goodnight.

11:52PM

Kim

Good night!

--Next is Oct 28, 10:35AM, me: "I might need to talk to you..."

October 28 2020

10:43AM

Kim

The demographic stuff is potentially hard to communicate fully. Anyone can understand, salvation is possible for everyone, but at the same time purity is needed to get the grail done, but I refused it. You're all doing a great job, but this mission isn't about individuals. It's hard to convey properly, but 1 per son taking that much onus on the project is adding the wrong context. That's what I tried to do... and we know how that turned out. Plus, I'm not willing to put his loved ones in danger like that. If I start getting donations regularly and diversely, I'd consider getting on disability to help funnel the f unds to the project and keep it off of my survival needs...

1:54PM

Brian

1:54PM

Brian

1:54PM

Brian

1:54PM

Brian

1:56PM

Brian

I've been praying a lot about all of this. I really don't want to hurt anyone. Maybe the entire lesson is that humanity just simply doesn't deserve existence on Earth. I don't know, but it sure seems that way.

2:18PM

Brian

I understand. I told you this would happen, remember? A large part of your dilemma is that people you know and are trying to influence base the information that you're trying to convey on what they know about you, and clash with. Even if they don't tell you that to your face. It was a big problem I had with my family. They're wrong twice over, but that doesn't make it any easier trying to explain that. Like I said, it's shaping up to be a project that humanity just doesn't have time to wade through all of these personal conflicts to complete. Sometimes I feel like grabbing people by the heading and screaming in their face to wake the fuck up! But even that would cause more problems than solve. It's a very complex and delicate battle that should be fought all guns blazing.

2:22PM

Brian

Really does make me think that humanity is destined to fail... just because of the overwhelming selfishness of everyone alive. Every human has confidence in themselves right now, and none of them should. As long as the gas tanks stay full, the grocery stores stay stocked, and the TV is there to direct their attention, I don't see that arrogance relinquishing. It's as if they don't deserve the holy grail... but rather I was sent here to find those who do. And maybe that's because my superiors knew so many would fail... I just don't know.

2:43PM

Brian

In the middle of these kinds of discussions, people try to redirect to a topic they know they can best you on. "Oh yeah? Well remember when you said blah blah blah?" And before you know it, the discussion is miles away from where you intended it to be. Happens to me on every 4chan post, for example.

2:55PM

Brian

Hahaha

3:09PM

Brian

That is accurate. It's like saying, "last chance, dummies."

3:10PM

Brian

I'm glad you guys are talking.

3:16PM

Kim

So the chances of a spaceship showing up are near zero on the current trajectory? And I am too: it's due to my post "Request to Friends of Brian Harner."

3:20PM

Brian

Well, if I die and nothing changes, there's a possibility that you'll see a spaceship... but the occupants will not be "friendly."

3:25PM

Kim

Alright. I've been wondering a lot about having our free will broken or at least you getting on a ship and maybe a small number of people see.

3:31PM

Brian

Anything's possible. I'd consider that a win, though. My hope for victory fades more and more every day. That's just the reality of it. Ya know when this mission began I had so much more optimism. It pains me to have to explain shit in this way to you guys that have done so much. I'm sorry it's going this way. I could blow sunshine up your ass, but I don't want you to have any false premonitions. I'm at Grand Canyon by the way. Been studying people's reactions to my eyes. It's a general feeling I get from the public about how excited or scared they are to see me. People seem very distant and standoffish. Not good. It's never been like this.

3:39PM

Kim

How have the reactions been in the past?

3:43PM

Brian

Inquisitive, friendly, and women seem attracted to me. It's like I'm a nigger and everyone is clinching their purse. Animals are still very happy to see me, though. Dogs, birds, elk, deer, cats... they're all happy and inquisitive. I don't know what that means but it's happening.

3:49PM

Brian

I don't know. I went through Phoenix yesterday and that's in my gematria sequence. Still haven't figured out why. Maybe it's referencing the bird? As in, rise from the ashes?

October 29 2020

1:51PM

Kim

Are you going to see your father today?

3:42PM

Brian

Not today. Still sightseeing.

October 29 7:02PM

Kim

Oh man, I just got the letter...

7:04PM

Kim

Someone added a stamp that says...

October 30 1:53PM

Brian

I'm not surprised. I told you about that. She might have even changed the po box so nothing of mine forwards to her.

2:31PM

Brian

I don't really know what you're trying to accomplish. She doesn't care about me now, if ever the way I cared about her. Im learning that about almost everyone from my past. They really do think I've lost my mind, and makes for an easy out to just throw me away. It's the same scenario with my dad. That's why I'm almost certain he'll just throw me away... again. The PO box should work, if she didn't change it. You can be as loud or quiet as you'd like. Totally your call. Will anyone listen? I guess it comes down to how loud you are and in what direction that voice is heading. Like Nathan for example... a mouse fart is louder than he's been. I don't even know what to say to him. It's like this whole thing is just a game.

2:37PM

Brian

That's why I'm letting my phone turn off. Am I supposed to keep doing everything? I feel bad for you because you've done so much... but it looks like it's just us against the world. I tried to talk to a young couple yesterday, but same thing. They posture like I'm crazy, and force me to rush through shit. It's tiring and all I want to do is help. In reality I blame all of the religious zealot freaks that poisoned the well of souls I'm trying to reach. People think I'm religious, trying to start a cult, scam money, etc. I'm fucking sick of it.

I'm sorry if you're busy, but I have to go. It'll be Sunday or Monday before I check my phone again.
Have a good weekend.

October 30 4:06PM

Kim

You too. Goodbye.

November 1 2:15PM

Brian

Tried calling you. I'm charging...

November 1 7:13PM

Kim

Thank you. My colleague should...

November 3 11:01AM

Kim

Why is it implied in The Only Planet of Choice that 6 million were killed (pg 119 in the pdf I posted)? Or am I not understanding?

11:25AM

Kim

It's interesting to see the differences in the way they communicated through her compared to you. I would guess that is to attend to changing needs over time.

12:16PM

Brian

You always have to imply the collective accepted zeitgeist of humanity as a whole. Same thing with what Jesus said right before he died on the cross. I'm going to live out the accepted ideal of what people think he said, not what he actually said. Her position within the channelling process was to inject possibilities into the collective conscience. What came from those sessions is Star Trek, and a few other ideas. It was misinterpreted and bastardized by humanity, but that was the goal. I'm here to fit the final missing piece of the puzzle, and deliver a message. In other words, there are no more "possibilities." It's "our" way or extinction. Her's was imaginative. Mine is definite. Do you understand?

12:19PM

Kim

Yes. I got the impression from other statements in the book that the nine was trying to encourage spiritual purity, which includes humility, in everyone.

12:33PM

Kim

Well, of course he was, but he did it in a way that might have been easier to accept by people compared to the definite truth. But we know how that turned out.

12:38PM

Brian

Exactly. If people were expecting two identical Christs after one of them was murdered, they're idiots.

3:19PM

Kim

If you care to answer this question from the thread. Would you ever kill yourself? Are there any possible circumstances in which you would be instructed to do so?

3:28PM

Brian

No. My directives are simple. 1) I'm not allowed to hurt myself or anyone else. 2) I can't break anyone's free will. That said, I'll allow humanity to let me atrophy to death in their chosen system of governance. I'm not going to add to the Jewish banking hegemony/get a job that is taxed adding to the stranglehold of government subsidization of planetary finite resources that have a grand equation summation called omnicide. In other words, my life (at least right now) is in humanity's hands.

4:33PM

Kim

4:40PM

Kim

7:27PM

Brian

It's possible. I'm going to Las Vegas so possibly might be probably. We'll see!

7:58PM

Brian

Got an IMDb that said "Alex Rider" just now... doesn't make sense to me right now.

8:16PM

Kim

I looked up Alex Rider. "The adventures of a reluctant teenage spy on his missions to save the world."

8:37PM

Kim

Steve Pavlina lives in Vegas. He'll meet in person with people who

8:39PM

Kim

I know it's not ideal but I wanted to let you know. <https://www.stevepavlina.com/meeting-in-person/>

8:41PM

Kim

I think the first message cut off. I said he might actually listen to everything except for racial differences, especially Jews.

9:13PM

Kim

Do you know what compelled people to listen to Jesus while he was alive?

9:35PM

Brian

People in Jesus' days were humble, and did not have the authoritative posture that a crude oil economy gives to even the dumbest of people. They were also severely hampered by the Roman military and Jewish authorities. It's similar today in that respect, but in those days being shunned by the collective meant an end to your life, as well as your family. In these days, crude oil economies allow autonomous movements to escape that form of persecution. Jesus offered a different path than what the masses "had to" conform to.

9:38PM

Brian

I'm taking a detour to Zion National Park. Saw the sign and went for it. When I stopped to write these texts in a Maverick gas station, I gazed up to the hills and they're on fire. Less than 1 mile from me... the mountains are on fire. Wow.

9:39PM

Brian

If you could accept pictures, I'd send you one. It looks surreal... especially considering the timing AND where I'm going. Seriously, wow.

9:40PM

Kim

It works sometimes. You can try.

9:40PM

Kim

I've also successfully sent texts to my e-mails address.

9:41PM

Brian

Image

9:42PM

Brian

Let me know if you get it...

9:45PM

Kim

It worked. Do you think it is safe where you are headed?

9:47PM

Brian

Nothing is safe for my body, but nobody, and I mean nobody's soul is safer than mine. I'm ALWAYS prepared to meet my maker.

9:49PM

Brian

That's why I put those thread trolls to the ultimate test. Shun me outright and in the afterlife, you're fucked. When I said I'm the only person on humanity's side, I meant it.

9:51PM

Brian

It's quite a calming feeling that I did not understand until I became a Christ. This is what true love entails. I have no fear of the afterlife at all, in fact I'm looking forward to it. That said, burning to death would suck, LMAO.

10:03PM

Kim

I always assumed "Zion" referred to Jews. I looked it up. "A city of refuge where the Lord protects his people from the evils in the world"

10:07PM

Brian

Tonight might be the night!

10:08PM

Kim

What? You walk into that fiery lair and end up in Aldebaran?

10:11PM

Kim

That's a star. I thought it was the name used by Maria to refer to the center of Earth.

10:20PM

Brian

Tonight might be the night!

10:23PM

Brian

Made me lol.

10:24PM

Brian

I don't know. I'm not supposed to know how this ends.

10:27PM

Kim

By the way, I noticed a post recently where you said Adolf escaped Germany. Where did he go- Argentina, or elsewhere?

10:31PM

Brian

Argentina from what I understand of it.

10:33PM

Kim

I thought there was no way he could stand to do that.

10:52PM

Brian

He was basically forced.

11:01PM

Kim

By who/what and for what reason?

11:04PM

Brian

His military personnel protecting him. Because they knew they had lost when the allies crossed into Germany.

11:08PM

Kim

Why didn't they let him end his life in the bunker?

11:14PM

Brian

Bait and switch. He had many body doubles from what I understand of it. That was all propaganda and historical theatrics from the Jews/Allies to save face and have a good cover story for the newspapers. This is all conjecture based on records from both sides and finding middle ground where the truth makes sense. I'm not saying any of this is definite, but I am saying it's the most likely true scenario. Maria on the other hand straight up disappeared. There's no denying that. I'm 99% certain she got to "go home" as opposed to dying. None of it really matters aside from ego boosting. Germany lost, plain and simple. Purity and a Christ hopeful lost. That's all that really matters.

11:22PM

Brian

The Jews do the same shit now going both directions. During the 2000 election drama I was in the Persian Gulf building, loading and launching tons of ordinance. Not a peep in the papers in the US at the time. They were dumping Vietnam era cluster bombs by the dozens on real people every day. I was there. I participated. When I got back, nobody had heard a thing about it. We killed thousands, no bullshit. All to ramp up the bomb factories. Then just 2 years later, they manufactured a fake war and dropped all of those. Until 1999, all of the ordinance in our mags had 1970s stamps on it. It was a money grab through taxpayers funding the military industrial complex, and none of them were wise to it. Same shit, different toilet... when looking into the Hitler bullshit.

11:33PM

Kim

The fake war started with 9/11?

11:39PM

Brian

Yep.

11:39PM

Brian

They set that up in the late 1990s. I was there. I watched it happen.

11:42PM

Kim

Is there a particular source to read on this?

11:50PM

Brian

hole in the USS Cole. They were in our battle group. That's what started the barrage. But it did not end with Tomahawks. I flew back from the gulf a few months later to get out of the Navy. On my journey back I landed in Virginia Beach with the USS Cole survivors. Even when I brought up to them that we were decimating Arabs on their behalf, they had no idea about it Almost total silence. The command of the boat killed all outward communication s during the assault. I doubt you'll hear anything outside of our CAG 14 AO squadron mates.

11:50PM

Brian

Brian

Brian

11:51PM

Brian

DO NOT TELL ANYONE ABOUT THAT PICTURE.

11:52PM

Brian

I'm trying to make sure nobody worships me when I'm gone.

11:54PM

Kim

Photos taken by you are off-limits, just like photos of you?

11:55PM

Brian

I'm going to shut my phone down and head up to the mountains. Have fun looking into the kike disinformation.

11:55PM

Kim

Thank you. Good night.

November 3 2020

11:58PM

Brian

Thank you for everything. You're doing a magnificent job. Don't let the trolls get to you. Goodnight.

7:14PM

Brian

Try to relinquish your grasp on physical life as though it's the only way to experience existence. You cannot control others. YOU... have nothing to fear. You're on a very short list. Try to look past the present. I know it's hard, but try. Whether I'm alive or not, I'll do everything in my power to help you. There might be only 6 people that can say that right now. Great job, seriously. You've earned the praise. Now go win that fucking race! heh

(messages lost. See Brian Harner Update #2)

8:25PM

Kim

That sounds different from posting the various mp3s, transcripts, text messages, etc, with an overview of where we stand. That would have to be more thorough.

8:28PM

Brian

I just thought of it last night when I heard his guest. He was a Hopi Indian expert and had some interesting things to say. Wasn't the normal bland "make the radio station money" kind of topic. Took it as a sign. Not a biggie either way, just throwing it out there.

8:32PM

Kim

I'll keep it in mind, even if it ends up being later than the next ~24 hours. Thank you.

November 5 8:35PM

Brian

This election energy is ramping up. I've stopped in Arizona in a TA and am watching Tucker Carlson. It's all so funny from my perspective.

8:40PM

Kim

I did not vote because I thought about what might happen if no one else did: this shit would be over.

8:44PM

Brian

Smart. That was the only intellectual move. With Trump they're reelecting the most powerful antichrist; Jared Kushner. With Biden there are millions of less powerful antichrists. If you had to destroy antichrists with fire, which would you choose? I concentrated fire, or a country wide fire? That's how I see it. Of course... I chose to abstain as well. NO antichrists is what I want.

9:29PM

Kim

I thought about voting for you...

LMAOOOOO

November 6 12:47PM

Brian

Got an email saying the transfer went through. Thank you again.

2:55PM

Kim

You're welcome. Could I call you this evening, maybe by 10 EST?

November 9 2020

3:33AM

Kim

I have been waking up and checking my phone every couple of hours.

4:09AM

Kim

I saw a light move across the sky just above the horizon right before 4AM. Left no trail, no sound, no red/blinking light, descended non-linearly.

4:20AM

Kim

Definitely did not strike me as manmade. Sleeping for now: I'll leave a ringer on so feel free to text/call.

5:13AM

Brian

This conversation is getting heated around here... as usual. Probably not going to last much longer.

5:14AM

Kim

Any way I could help?

5:15AM

Brian

No. I'm going to try to get some sleep.

5:16AM

Kim

Good night. I will pray for the best.

5:16AM

Brian

Goodnight. Me too.

12:46PM

Kim

Finally driving home. My phone will be on. If it is needed I will find somewhere to pull over.

12:54PM

Brian

Not much more for me to say about last night. He told me in so many words that he's not going to help. I thought I was close to making a breakthrough with him, but he reverted back to an emotional stance on the entire situation, then declared that I am not a Christ, my "invention" is not the holy grail, and berated me as a racist and said I'm sexist, even though he had no retort when I explained how my version of “nigger” defers greatly from his. I don't see any recoverable avenues for progress. I feel like I'm talking into a void... and that's all of Earth. As I stated before, it's as if humanity requires an armageddon to humble themselves.

1:01PM

Kim

So what does he understand? Did he wonder why I would talk to you if you're sexist? Where are you now?

1:09PM

Brian

Still at his house. He's still sleeping. I also mentioned my friend Gary, and explained as much as I could about how I want everyone to be pure, not just white people. It didn't matter. He also admitted that he's selfish, doesn't care about the future inhabitants of humanity, and also stated literally that “something will happen to fix the consumerism problem, overpopulation, and ecosystem collapse.” No idea what will do that, but he's sure it will happen. Then he ranted about how if my “invention” really worked, I'd be able to make a working prototype easily and I'd be “rich.” Essentially, the /diy/ thread, and majority of 4chan by proxy, in the flesh.

1:14PM

Kim

... Well. I realized that the opposite of being a consumer is being a maker. People take pride in what they use. Your message is that we should take pride in our ability to create. That's how we go from type 0 to 1, and that is the only solution to consumerism.

1:15PM

Kim

1:16PM

Brian

And apparently, according to him, retirement has always been around, the resource base has never changed regardless of population size, will increase or remain constant indefinitely, then verbally attacked the hierarchy as being “stupid” for not making their presence obvious and speaking to him directly because “he is a man.” And when he said that part, he was saying it as though being a man on Earth right now whose retired is the pinnacle of achievement in this universe. As well as stated emphatically that the entire universe itself, is the 3rd dimension.

Note, 8:00PM: One set of lights in LC suddenly turned off.

1:25PM

Brian

I don't have any recourse to maintain this dialogue because while he's saying this shit, he's essentially yelling it at me, claiming to own everything including himself. Every time I make a point that he cannot argue or admit he's wrong about, he just starts yelling. I mean, it's exactly how I've been treated by almost everyone. Completely emotional, totally irrational, arrogant, selfish, and incapable of self reflection and objectivity. I'm literally sitting in the guest room silent right now and praying for an exit strategy from life itself. The disrespect that my superiors take from humans on a regular basis is overwhelming my conscience. Entitlement and a superiority complex has consumed everyone seemingly, and there's no viable strategy for rectifying this situation or even a hope that it will improve by THEIR standards.

1:31PM

Brian

Everyone wants to be lazy, everyone feels like they're owed happiness with zero regard for who suffers at the hands of it, everyone thinks they have "needs," and everyone feels that no matter how receive, it's not enough. Not only does everything need to be presented to their liking, it needs to be given a certain way. And I'm tired of trying to enlighten people of their true stature. Everything I say to people is replied to with this overwhelmingly arrogant attitude.

1:36PM

Kim

Interesting how people who admit to selfishness or otherwise have entitlement/ownership attitudes also are "anti-hate" regarding race and sex.

1:37PM

Kim

That does not keep them from hating you, the environment, the future, non-human lifeforms, and the hierarchy.

1:38PM

Brian

Yes. Irony is the language of a species who claims intelligence, but remains omniscient.
